Day 2: Montréal - Mont-Tremblant

This morning immerse yourself in the rich, diverse history of Montréal with a quick drive tour of the city. Experience an overview of Montréal and its historical sites where you will discover all of the characteristics this French Canadian city has to offer. We suggest a brief drive through "OLD MONTRÉAL? Enjoy a journey through time as you visit Old Montréal, nestled between the St. Lawrence seaway and the downtown skyscrapers. Founded in 1642, this old town is a main attraction for visitors and locals alike, with its many boutiques and restaurants. It is in this part of the city where you will find the Notre-Dame-Basilica. Built in 1824, this church is amidst the most impressive landmarks in the world. Its original stained glass windows paint a story of Montréal's religious history.MOUNT ROYAL PARK LOOKOUT? This enchanting park offers an impressive view of the city below. It has provided many outdoor activities for over 100 years. In winter, the park offers great snowshoeing opportunities as well. "SAINT JOSEPH'S ORATORY? an Italian Renaissance style basilica which is the largest in Canada and is dedicated to the country's patron saint. Its founder, Brother André had performed many miracles here in the early 1900's and still today, millions of visitors come to visit. Brother André was canonized in 2010 by Pope Benedict XVI.This afternoon drive into the Laurentian Mountains and the stunning alpine resort of Mont-Tremblant. Take a short drive through this beautiful resort before checking in to your accommodation. We suggest an evening stroll through the fairy tale Christmas village.

Day 4: Québec City

As part of your Quebec City sightseeing tour, you will visit the famous Ice Hotel and explore this at your own pace or with a guide. For its 17th season, the 'tel de Glace de Québec' invites visitors to discover the beauties and mysteries of the North Pole. From the pole star to the Artic wildlife, the Northern Perspectives theme is the inspiration behind the architectural design of the 2017 'tel de Glace' and its unique suites. From January 4 to March 26, everyone is invited to come experience the joys of winter in a truly enchanting decor at Valcartier Vacation Village. For the artistic director of the 'tel de Glace', Pierre l'Heureux, this year's theme offers a fun way to explore different avenues, "This year, we're taking a look at the circumpolar world from both an entertaining and a cultural perspective. This will be an exciting opportunity for visitors to discover different cultures and civilizations, to meet important figures and to take a thrilling trip to the polar ice pack." The guided tour also includes seeing Chateau Frontenac, Parliament Buildings, Plains of Abraham, Lower Village and Fortifications du Québec. The afternoon is at your leisure for shopping and exploring galleries along the cobblestone streets of Old Québec City.
